

SOUTH DAKOTA STATE UNIVERSITY RODEO BOOSTERS

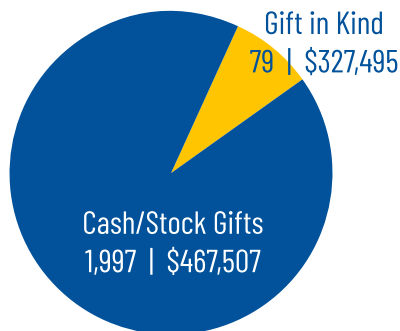

STEERS FOR STATE

Steers for State is a unique initiative that empowers livestock producers and supporters to invest in the future of South Dakota State University (SDSU) Rodeo. This program provides scholarships to outstanding Rodeo team members, helping them achieve their academic and athletic goals while pursuing college degrees.

By donating a livestock animal, you can play a vital role in sustaining the mission of the SDSU Rodeo Program: to provide an exceptional collegiate rodeo experience for student-athletes dedicated to earning marketable degrees at South Dakota's largest university. Together, we can champion the success of future leaders in and out of the arena.

WHAT IS NEW?

The highly successful Steers for State program has been revamped, simplified, and expanded to include all livestock species. The prior version of Steers for State awarded more than $795,000 in scholarships over the past four decades.

HOW CAN LIVESTOCK PRODUCERS HELP?

- At market time, consign one (or more) of your livestock animals in support of SDSU rodeo. Or perhaps you and a neighbor alternate doing so on a year-to-year basis. Ear tags can be provided to you, at branding or any other time, to help provide additional visibility for you and the SDSU Rodeo Program.
- If asked, some auction barns may allow a few minutes to sell animals separately, as a way of explaining and promoting the sale and SDSU rodeo. If not, the herd average can be calculated.
- Ask the market/buyer to cut a check for your animal(s), or whatever amount you choose, payable to the SDSU Foundation, noting the check is for support of SDSU rodeo. NOTE: this amount is not subject to Federal income tax.
